

Dix to You Summer 2009

Excitement is high around the Dix Residence! After over four years of work, my autobiography, "Out of Hollywood," has been published! We have a 'Published Author' in the house! Of course, I had all kinds of help from my wife Mary Ellen, our daughter Christine, my partner Jake Edwards, our mentors, Mike Rounds and Nancy Miller and our graphic artist in Hawaii, Leslie Sears, to mention a few of the Dix Team Players. The important opinion is what you think of the book. All the information you need to get your copy is in this newsletter.

The few people we have asked to review "Out of Hollywood" have been more than kind. Boyd Magers, publisher and Editor of "Western Clippings", one of the few people I asked to review the book said, in part, "Absolutely compelling reading! The old adage, "hard to put down" certainly applies..."

Fortunately through Ernest Publishing Company and the Dix Team, we have produced a finished product I am proud to share with you. We are now ready to reach out to people interested in Hollywood history.

Giddy-up go!

Bob
